Tobacco Use in Hughes County
Quarter 1 2020: January 1, 2020 to March 31, 2020

The South Dakota (SD) QuitLine is a Department of Health program offering tobacco cessation assistance to all SD tobacco users interested in quitting through three distinct services: 1) a Quit Guide, a self-directed cessation workbook, 2) a Kickstart Kit, a two or four-week supply of nicotine replacement therapy (NRT) with a Quit Guide, and 3) a phone coaching program, which includes up to twelve telephone coaching sessions, up to twelve weeks of NRT or the cessation medication, Zyban, and a Quit Guide.

1,875 adult smokers in Hughes County

26 phone enrollments

6 Kickstart Kit enrollments

0 direct healthcare provider referrals
How Callers Heard about the SD QuitLine*

Healthcare Professional	Family/Friend	Television Advertising	Website	Other Referral
12	9	9	4	3

Tobacco Type (n=32)

Cigarettes	87.5%
Smokeless Tobacco	6.3%
Other Tobacco	3.1%
Polytobacco use	0.0%

12.5% of enrollees from Hughes County reported using an e-cigarette

Priority Populations Enrolled*

1	Youth (<18) and young adults (18-24)
0	Pregnant women
1	Medicaid recipients
2	Smokeless tobacco users
5	American Indians
14	Mental health/substance use disorders

Among Phone Coaching Enrollees

42.3% allow smoking in their home

65.4% allow smoking in their car

42.3% live with someone who uses tobacco

For more information contact the Capital Area Counseling at (605) 224-5811!